LEAP is a partnership between UT Health and TAMU where students complete their Bachelor of Science degree from TAMU and gain early acceptance to a School of Health Professions (SHP) graduate or doctoral program. Students will be guided through the requirements needed to apply.

PROGRAMS OFFERED:
- Master of Physician Assistant Studies
- Master of Science in Respiratory Care
- Master of Science in Medical Laboratory Sciences
- Doctor of Occupational Therapy
- Doctor of Physical Therapy

REQUIREMENTS:
- Indicate program you are pursuing
- 24 SCH, including 12 SCH in specific science and math prerequisite courses.
- Minimum overall GPA of 3.2 at TAMU
- Two letters of recommendation from any of the following: a science faculty member or a professional in the selected field of interest.
- Copy of TAMU transcript (unofficial is acceptable)
- Resume
- 20hrs of volunteering, working, or shadowing/observing in a health care setting
- Personal essay.

PROGRAM OPPORTUNITIES:
- Course Planning
- Faculty and Student Meet and Greet
- Campus Visits
- Assistance Finding Shadowing Sites
- Application Review.

Questions regarding the application should be directed to:
Texas A&M International University
Dr. Hector González, Pre-Health Professions Advisor
hector.gonzalez@tamiu.edu
956.326.3121

Questions regarding the programs in the School of Health Professions can be directed to:
UT Health San Antonio, School of Health Professions
Office of Admissions & Special Programs
shpwelcome@uthscsa.edu
210.567.6220

DEADLINE: APRIL 15, 2019